Americans in Kentucky.

"There are counties in Kentucky where there is not a single resident of foreign birth," declared R. B. Baker, of Louisville. "The residents are the descendants of the old families who came to Kentucky when the State was known as the 'dark and bloody ground,' and who fought to make the State what it is to-day. They have no land to sell to foreigners, they have no business to do with them, therefore the foreign population settles elsewhere. I presume these same conditions of affairs will be found in these same counties 50 years from now."

"Not anywhere else in this country can there be found a settlement which is more truly American. When you stop to consider the number of nationalities one meets gathered together in almost every part of the country, the way these Kentuckians have managed to keep to themselves is little less than marvelous." — Milwaukee Sentinel.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A.
Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says:
"I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, and my heart was weakened and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by Oberdorfer, the druggist, at 50c a bottle. aug

On a Mississippi Steamboat.

[Thornton Oakley in Harper's Magazine for August.]

A young fellow, a fellow-passenger, was leaning upon the rail beside me, looking upon the scene below. He told me to watch and he would show me some sport. He drew a dime out of his pocket. He waved his arm to attract the attention of the negroes down upon the lower deck, and then he flung the coin. It fell tinklin, and rolled between to cotton bales. With yells the negroes rushed at it tumultuously, piling over one another, a tangled mass of waving arms and legs, whence issued muffled groans and grunts. Then, suddenly, the mass dissolved again into a mob of roustabouts, gaping at us with rolling yellow eyes and heaving chests and dilated nostrils. Another piece of silver twinkled in the air and fell among them. Leaping and grabbing, the negroes snatched at the falling coin, then plunged again into a heap.

By this time others of the passengers had heard the noise and the scuffling, and soon quite a crowd was gathered along the rail. A shower of change began to fall upon the deck below and into the crowd of now half-frantic blacks.

It was a comical spectacle. A little while before the negroes had been quietly busied about their own affairs; a handful of cheap silver had fallen among them, and in less than a minute their small world was transformed into a pandemonium. I have heard it said that the same pandemonium occurs sometimes on the Stock Exchange.

Smallest Warrant Ever Issued.

The post office department recently drew a warrant in favor of Adriel L.
Stuart, of Freedom, N. H., for one cent. This is Stuart's pay for carrying the mails for four years from Freedom to a railroad station seven and three-quarter miles away. He travels this distance of fifteen and a half miles six times a week. His pay is a quarter of a cent a year, or one three hundred and twelfth part of a cent for one trip. This is the smallest treasury warrant ever issued and Stuart will have it framed instead of cashed. He bid this low figure because of the prestige which the sign, "U. S. Mail" on his wagon gives him in his passenger carrying business.

Court-Martial Approved.

The President has approved the sentence of the court-martial in the case of Lieut. Marton B. Wilhoit, formerly of Kentucky, who was dismissed from the army for duplication of pay accounts at Jackson Barracks, La.
Lieut. Wilhoit secured marriage license in this city on Oct. 30, 1904, and was the same night married in Lexington. The marriage for some reason was kept a profound secret.

Spoiled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes:
"I had salt rheum or eczema for years, but nothing would cure it until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at Oberdorfer's drug store.
